

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs. The removal of net neutrality would be a blatant infringement upon democracy and freedoms, integral values of the United States of America.